Fraser Institute Essay Contest

This contest is for both Canadian and international students; applicants do not have to live in Canada. To qualify, applicants must be attending school for the 2014-2015 academic year. To apply, applicants must submit an essay on the topic, "National Security and the Role of Government: Safety vs. Privacy in a Technological Age." Submissions will be considered from high school, undergraduate, and graduate students in all disciplines.

Scholarship Value: $500 - $1,500

Eligibility Requirements:

- The contest is open to Canadian and foreign students. A student is defined as someone who attends school in the 2014/2015 school year or is enrolled to attend in 2015/2016.
- Submissions will be considered from secondary and post-secondary (undergraduate and graduate) students in all disciplines.
- There will be three separate categories: high school, undergraduate, and graduate students. The category definitions are based on your status in the 2014/2015 school year; for example, if you are an undergraduate student from fall 2014 until spring 2015, you qualify in the ‘Undergraduate’ category.
- An essay can have more than one author, and any prizes awarded will be split evenly between the authors. The category in which the essay will be considered will be the author with the highest level of education; for example, if you are an undergraduate student and you co-author with a graduate student, your essay will be considered in the graduate category.
- Entry must include a typed essay of 1,000-1,500 words, and a cover sheet including the student’s name, mailing address, phone number, and e-mail address. High school students should include school and grade. Post-secondary students should include school, major, and year of graduation.
- Entries must be submitted online or by mail.
- Entries may only be submitted once. Further submissions with revisions will not be accepted.
- Entries must include references cited from academic sources. Any academically acceptable referencing style may be used.
- Please note that if you are a finalist and include a graph in your essay, you will be required to send it to us in an Excel file with the underlying data in order that we can recreate it in house. If you want to include a previously published graph for which you do not have the underlying data, you must cite its source appropriately to prove that you have permission to reuse it.
- Failure to follow these rules may lead to disqualification from the contest.
- Entries will be judged on originality, clear expression of ideas, and understanding of competitive markets.
- All entries become the property of the Fraser Institute. In addition to receiving cash prizes, winners may be published in Canadian Student Review once they have gone through the peer review process.

Application Deadline: Jun 1
