Point Foundation Scholarship

Point Foundation ("Point"), established in 2001, and was initially funded by a grant from Bruce C. Lindstrom & Carl T. Strickland. Point is what it is today—the premier, national LGBTQ non-profit organization designed to nurture the LGBTQ leaders of the next generation—because of the generous support of others. Point empowers promising LGBTQ students to achieve their full academic and leadership potential—despite the obstacles often put before them—to make a significant impact on society.

Scholarship Value: Varies (up to $10,000 per year)

Eligibility Criteria: Very strong academic performance is one characteristic that Point seeks in all its applicants and subsequent scholars. Additionally, proven leadership skills and the desire to make a difference in the world are highly valued. Each person who applies for a Point Scholarship is evaluated on the totality of their situation. Financial need, academic achievement, personal merit, leadership, involvement in the LGBTQ community, professional experiences, personal and future goals, and marginalization are all taken into consideration.

The LEVIN Firm Scholarship

At The Levin Firm, our Philadelphia car accident attorneys value education and helping those in need. We also understand that school can be a significant expense and know how hard it can be for students and their families to make ends meet. Between housing, tuition, books, and school supplies, the cost of attending college or graduate school can easily rise into the tens of thousands of dollars, if not more. In an effort to make things a little easier for students and their families, we are pleased to be offering a bi-yearly (February & July) $1,000 scholarship to individuals who are currently attending or planning on attending college or graduate school in the near future.

Scholarship Value: $1,000.00

• Applications should be emailed to levinscholarship@gmail.com
• Applicants should include their name, address and phone number.
• Applicants should include a link to their Facebook profile so that we may confirm their identity and school enrollment.
• The applicant should state where they are currently attending or planning to attend school in the body of their submission email.

Application Deadline: February 15, 2016
