

INDEPENDENCY APPEAL

2019 - 2020

REVIEW OF EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES

The Federal methodology assumes that the primary responsibility for paying for college costs rest with the family. Federal regulations permits the University to exercise professional judgment in determining if unusual circumstances can be documented to make the student independent for federal financial aid purposes. On a case by case basis, the Independency Appeals Committee in the Office of Student Financial Aid will exercise professional judgment in determining if unusual circumstances exist and if adequate documentation has been provided.

INDEPENDENCY APPEAL

WHAT DOES NOT CONSTITUTE EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES

Please Read Carefully

You cannot file an appeal if your circumstances represent any of the categories listed below.

- 1. A parent refusing to provide information or contribute to your education.
- 2. A student who does not want to ask parents for information.
- 3. A student who is and has been on "their own" for several years.
- 4. Parents who do not claim the student as a dependent for income tax purposes.
- 5. A student who has been previously considered independent for the purposes of receiving financial aid.
- 6. A student who is divorced at the time of filing a FAFSA and does not meet one of the current definitions of independency for 2019-2020.

Complete the Independency Appeal and attach documentation to the appeal. Circumstances must be validated through documentation. Failure to provide adequate documentation will result in the appeal being denied.

Retain this instruction sheet and keep copies of your documents for your records. The Office cannot return documents or provide copies at a later date. Place your panther ID Number on all documents.

Please allow 10 business days for a decision. You will be notified by mail or e-mail.
