Disbursement of Financial Aid

Georgia State will disburse financial aid to the student only after we receive certification from the host institution. Once Georgia State fees are paid, Georgia State will refund any excess financial aid to the student based on our published disbursement and refund schedule(s). Georgia State will not send funds to the Host Institution on behalf of the student, the student is responsible for payment of all charges at the Host Institution.

Student Requirements

You are required to notify the Office of Student Financial Aid at Georgia State if there are any changes to your enrollment at the host (visiting) institution. Withdrawals or nonattendance from any courses may result in the adjustment of your financial aid and cause a balance that must be repaid.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

In addition to the institutional hours and accepted transfer hours at Georgia State, hours attempted at the host school will be used in determining your SAP standing. Please review the relevant SAP policy at <http://sfs.GSU.edu/the-financial-aid-process/policies/satisfactory-academic-progress-sap/>. Depending on when the Host Institution submits grades and the academic performance is evaluated, financial aid may be impacted.
